“ I was saddened to read of Louise's passing. I worked with her for several years at UConn Law School and appreciated her professionalism. We shared a love of gardening and I remember her every spring when the prickly pear cactus she gave me for me garden is covered with yellow blossoms. Peace, Holly Brooks

“ Louise was a loving and fun person. For 17 years Louise was a stalwart at the law school clinic, doing her work with efficiency, care, and dispatch. She brought pride and humor to the office. She enjoyed people, especially clinic students. My heartfelt condolences to her family on their loss.

“ I will never forget Aunt Louise and all the times at the pool, or at the beach. You will be missed, but now at home with your brothers and sister, what a reunion that must have been! To Marci, Brenda, and the grandkids... I am so sorry for your loss, I love you all and wish I could be there for your time of need.
