“ Dear Haberern family,

My late ex-husband Joseph "Chips" Mussina always had stories to tell of his time in the Navy and of a young man who befriended one another back in the Oglethorpe days. It was obvious how fond "Chips" was of the situation-specific friendship. Enough so that he stopped when passing through CT decades later, with me in tow, to meet with "Dutch" and his lovely wife for a short visit while on our way to visit his sister in ME. I was grateful to have heard the navy stories and to have met such lovely folks. And also grateful to have had "Chips" as part of my life for the better part of 25 yrs. My heart aches for you in your time of loss. May your loving memories help sustain you through this difficult time. Peace.

“ Dutchess, so very sorry for your loss. He was a character. He had one hell of a laugh. Ed, Don and John were the first people I met when I relocated to Manchester. Met at the corner of Main and Bissell Sts. one Thursday evening early summer of 1955, wow 60 yrs. ago. This loss put tears in my eyes.

The best to you and yours. Bill.

“ My sincerest sympathies to the Haberern family. I only met Ed once but enjoyed very much discussing 50's Doo-Wop music with him, and from my conversations with Cathy he was a great Dad who will be sorely missed. Neil and Marc convey their sympathies as well. Peace.
