“ Karen, Nels and family, Please accept my condolences. Mabel was a wonderful neighbor to us on Sefton Drive. She, Tony and my parents, Alex and Jeanette, had a lot of good card games and a lot of good fun over many, many years, with Caroline in there too. I did see Mabel at the Jerome Home several times. She lived a good life but had tragedy along the way. My best to you all.

“ Mabel had a love of landscape and art. She told me stories of days on the beach with her beloved husband, Anthony, and also days by the lake fondly spent there. All this was recorded in Anthony's art which she championed. I will miss her gentle soul.
