“ I'll miss you Aunt Madaline. I'll always remember how my Grandma Irene Kowalewski would take me over to visit you and Uncle Leonard. It was wonderful how we could always find something interesting to talk about even after not seeing each other for long spans of time. I'm grateful for the brief visit we had recently.

“ Aunt Madaline's smile will always be in my memory. She was a most gentle and giving person - always thinking of others first. The Chinese Lantern and Primrose flowers she gave me many years ago will forever bloom her memory in my garden. I will miss you, my Aunt Madaline. Love, Paula has been a very close friend to Madaline since 1962, and will surely appreciate any calls or cards, as she described to me her &#147;devastation&#148; at Madaline&#146;s passing.

From about 2006 thru 2009, every June, for the Stevens High School reunion, mom and I would bring Madaline to see the Claremont parade. We would then visit Mary Ann and spend a delightful few hours. We would also visit Madaline&#146;s sister Lillian, who passed away around 2008, and who lived with her son Paul, a retired Navy pharmacist&#146;s mate.

Of Madaline&#146;s rehab about a year ago, she urgently wanted to call Mary Ann to let her know she was ok, but her phone did not allow outside calls. Similarly, Mary Ann had been urgently asking me about how to get flowers delivered to Madaline. As mom and my daughter Margaret visited Madaline in her room, Margaret graciously used her cell phone to call Mary Ann. Seconds into the call, Madaline was in tears, clearly and simply moved at hearing her good friend&#146;s voice.

She was a steadfast friend to and regularly corresponded with Helen Moffet Dawson in Mansfield, grandmother to my daughters Margaret and Melaina.

She was always energetic and graceful and good company to Doris, and always welcomed hearing news of Margaret and Melaina.

We enjoyed our own tradition, whose origin is lost to me, of addressing each other only as Mrs Magee and Mr Magee.

*And she had a serious thing for Hershey's Special Dark chocolate,
but would still send me home with some. Now there's a friend.*
