“ Uncle Jack, Jackie, Debra and Cheryl,
I am so sorry and sad to hear of Aunt Peggy's passing. I have so many beautiful memories with her I will cherish forever. I'll never forget and loved her late night vist's to our house,my father kidding with her. Going to South Catholic bingo with her. I use to look so forward to that every week. She had so many bingo cards, I was amazed how fast she covered them I loved every minute being there with her.

Seeing Aunt Peggy and all of you at my wedding is also memories that are in my heart forever. I will miss her. Please know you all are in my thought & prayers. Love, Alicia “ Suddenly, it's summertime 1973 or maybe 1974. I'm in my boat out on the lake. Then I hear Peg's unmistakeable voice drifting across Woodstock Valley...RRRROBERT...SUPPER'S READY. It's time to stop everything and head for Peg's table. God, she was so generous to me. Her words were always kind, her spirit always giving. If she heard my words I can see that quizzical look on her face as if to say "what on earth are you talking about." She was oblivious to her wonderful traits. I never heard her brag--except possibly about a good hit at bingo. Rest easy my dear friend, I really did love you.

“ When someone close is hurting, we search for things to say, or any little gesture to help them in some way. For though we can't heal sorrow with friendship's gentle touch, we do our best to let them know we care so very much. My thoughts are with you Debbie.
