“ My deepest sympathies to you all. I first met Peggy back in 1971 when I was first coming into the Truth. We felt a bit of a bond because we shared the same first name. I really enjoyed working out in service with her. She was always a lady, dressed to the nines I think she wore a mink stole from time to time, didn't she?, her lipstick perfectly applied and the beautiful aroma of White Shoulders perfume. I moved to the Plainville Congregation a few years later and did not see much of her after that. But she was a very special lady and I certainly look forward to seeing her again in God's New Order.
