“ I even had alot of fun with you when you and I worked together. At Peter Pauls. I can't believe you every told anybody about the time when I washed the window and had the soap all over the place and you told me you don't need so much soap. I still think about it and get a laugh about it. You had the best Assyrian rice that I have ever tasted. love always Stephen

“ Dear Grammy--
It has been a week since your departure and my profound sadness lingers. I can't imagine moving on without you but your everpresent and infinite wiseness reminds me this is God's will. I have comfort knowing that you are not so lost that I can't find you. I know where to look--I'll see you sitting in your pew in church as Poppy still sits in his. I will longingly miss your soft giggle, loving heart, and the touch of your warm, caring hands. At the end of my life I hope I will have achieved all that you have. Surely no small task but if I can come close to equalling your sincerity, charity, and kindness, I will have lived well. My world is dimmer without you but I will always keep you close--memories of you will keep you there. Be at peace---all my love, Elizabeth

“ PAUL: My sister sent me a copy of your Mom's obit. I want to express my sympathy to you and your sisters. I still you remember you sitting in your house with the 22 knocking off the squirrels on the walnut tree. I kept one of them and dissected it. The smell was terrible! We had some good times in N.B. I have lived in Pa for almost 30 years. Hard to believe how the years have gone by. Take care old buddy...Jim Greco

“ Mrs Eshoo loved gardening and I'll never forget comparing notes with her on planting and growing vegetables, when we were at her son Paul's home , during a family party. She was quite the lady. We always enjoyed and loved being in her company.
