“ I can hear her voice and one of those Aunt Marie expressions.. "isn't that shnazzy"....she was always sincerely interested in what was going on in your life-sports, girlfriends, school, or work. May she rain down her continued love to her family and friends.

“ Rest in Peace Aunt Marie. You will always be remembered fondly with so many memories: at Highland Lake, huge family Christmas parties, summer family picnics, bongos for my Christmas gift one year so long ago, quiet conversations with everyone and caring words of loving advice for me as a young kid. I remember so much. Happy memories.
You will be missed. But reunited with family now, Uncle Teddy, and at peace.
Thank you for being my God Mother, aunt Marie.
Love always,
Dennis
