“ Like my sister Sue, I will never forget what a wonderful cook my Aunt Marge was and what a treat it was to go visit the Bores' out in the "country" on East Street. Her sweetness and care did come through in those pies - I've never tasted another crust like hers in my life! Even with all the other children running around, she always made me feel a little special, like there was a unique place for me in her home.

More recently, it's been a joy to be able to be in touch with Marge several times a year, trading genealogy data and family stories and pictures. I only wish we hadn't lost so much time in the years between - Marge and Betty were my link to my father, who has himself been gone for so many years.

I will miss you, my Aunt Marge, and I send my condolences and love to all my cousins, their families and to Uncle John.

“ I was really sad to hear of Aunt Margie's passing. I remember her strength AND sweetness, which were tangible to me through her wonderful blueberry pies. I can almost taste them now, even though it has probably been 30-35 years since I had a piece of one of those pies on my on my plate!

I remember the fun of playing ball in the yard on East St. whenever we got together. Was it at Eastertime? I remember Aunt Margie working to get everything ready inside while we played. I remember feeling VERY privileged about getting to choose between TWO different kinds of pie at dinner. Very sweet memories, all of them.

*Sending my love and sympathy to all of the Bores,

“ I didn't know Mrs. Bores but have worked with her son Rob for 7 years. I can only imagine what a nice person she was because she raised a son who has some special qualities. He is patient, kind, and very understanding. I can only imagine that Mrs. Bores was the same.

“ I have great memories of Marge. We enjoyed our volunteer work at NBGH and the Women's Auxiliary meetings and the Corporator's meetings. We tried not to miss any. Her spirit and memory will be a continuing presence.
