“ Dear Gail and David (and families),

How lucky I was to grow up with my Aunt Margie. Your mother was very special for all the reasons people have mentioned on this board (sense of humor, not wanting to sit with the old people, positive attitude and plunge forward, chat to acknowledge you). And I was very fortunate to receive a phone call out of nowhere about two weeks ago from your mother..... we talked about anything and everything for about an hour. It felt so warm and comfortable to do so.....and warm and comfortable around your mother is the way I have felt all of my life.

I will miss Aunt Margie,

Mark

“ Dear Family,

Aunt Margie was part of a generation who knew how to live and enjoy life because they had been through so much. She was always smiling. I have many fond memories of her. One of my favorites was when she attended a family reunion (pre-Covid) at my home. It was 100+ degrees in the shade and I approached Auntie and said “It’s so hot why don’t you go inside, we have air conditioning.” To which she replied, “That’s where all the “old” people are.” She was in her late 80’s at the time! Spunky right through to the end. She was a treasured family member and she will be dearly missed.

“ David , Maria, Gail , Paul and family,
I remember when my Step Father George passed. It was horrible for me but there was a wedding the following weekend and Aunt Margie emphasized that I should go. I didn’t. I regret it. She always had such a positive attitude and plunged forward. That’s why we all love her and will always remember her❤️

“ Great Aunt Marj was a hoot! She was the nicest woman and always had a comical statement about any situation. I had the honor of also working with Aunt Marj at Eblens in New Britain while I was in college at CCSU many moons ago. In her 60's at that time, she still went up and down the "cellar stairs" in that little store to get sneakers like a champ and took no baloney from anyone in her words. The smile on her face in her obituary photo was planted on her face; always smirking, laughing or smiling! My condolences to her children, grandchildren and great grand children!

My terrific Aunt Margie and Godmother, you had a great run. It was so nice keeping in touch with you over the years even though I moved away. Everytime there was a report of bad weather in my area I can always count on a call from you to make sure I was o.k. I always loved the story you told me many times of how mad you were at my mother for not wanting 15 more minutes to give birth to me so we would have had the same birthday. You were a very special person, love your nephew Paul.

My mother (Shirley Poncini) and Margie were best of friends growing up in New Britain (possibly on Glen St) in the 1930's. My mother said that there were so many kids in that neighborhood during the depression that many front yards were all dirt, no grass, as the kids were always outside playing.

As a child, my earliest memories were when my mother would go over to visit her in the late 50's and early 60's with my sister and I in tow. I remember her being very friendly and able to relate to us before suggesting we go outside and play.

My condolences to her family.
