

Mary (Mahoney) Falvey

May 24, 1939 - July 22, 2021

Mary E. Falvey, longtime Londonderry, NH, elementary school educator, is now living happily ever after. She died peacefully at home July 22, 2021. She and her husband Jack met at Boston College in 1957 and came to New Hampshire in 1968. Their children, Kristine, Jim and Ellen all graduated from Londonderry High School. Mary taught for many years at South School in the readiness program and finished her career at Matthew Thornton as “The Mother of five first grades.” She maintained her teaching certification throughout the years preferring to work in support in the classrooms assigned. Born in Norwich Connecticut May 24th, 1939, the celebration of her eternal life is planned with a Mass of Christian burial at 10:00a.m. Wednesday July 28th at Saint Marks the Evangelist Parish, 1 South Road, Londonderry, NH. There are no calling hours. Private burial will be in the New Hampshire State Veteran’s Cemetery, Boscawen, NH. Her five grandchildren Sam, Andrew, Caroline, Connor and Julie were lights of her life and the pride of both she and her husband and children. Mary lived a full and religious life and contributed wonderfully to the success of her family. Carlson Funeral Home, New Britain, CT is assisting the family with arrangements. “ Dear Jack,
Becky and I send you and your family our deepest condolences on the passing of your dear wife Mary.
Mary was a much loved member of our BC group. Be assured that she will long be remembered by us all.
We send you warm regards and a special hug,
Joanne Reilly
