“ Ann Marie & Family:
Although I've never met Mary, I feel like I knew her. Not a day went by that I didn't think of her or the rest of the family. I would hear Ann Marie's phone ring at work, and shortly after..."yes, all the girls are in...yes, the kids are fine". She was a very thoughtful and considerate person, always thinking of others.

I wanted to send my deepest condolences out to the whole Wojnsnarowicz family. We can all take some comfort knowing that she is finally at peace; she is in a better place. Please know that you are all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ To Vic, Ann Marie and family - know that loving thoughts and prayers are with you. Losing a beloved wife, mother and grandmother is never easy. Remember the happy times. Your devotion to her care and well-being was a tribute to your love for her. I will think of the many kindnesses that Mary showed to me and especially remember her enjoyment of the Pulmonary Support Group community outings. She will be missed.
