“ My deepest sympathy is with the Dodson family, and especially Marie. I have many fond memories of Morris and Harvey, for whom I worked as a short order cook during my summer vacations when I was a college student in the late 1960s. The image that stays with me is of Morris with a Lucky Strike dangling from his lower lip as he pounded out hamburgers on a press. Occasionally a bit of ash would fall into the mixture, but I'm sure it only enhanced the flavor. And no one else could polish the grill to mirror-like perfection the way Morris did. We had a lot of laughs and happy moments behind the counter, and it was one of the most enjoyable jobs in my career.

“ Dear Dorothy & Family, Our family is terribly sorry to read of your Dad's passing. We have many fond memories of days gone by. We all dined on fingerlings and then ended up serving them to your many customers at Dodson's, spending weekends at Field Trials with your Dad's pointer, Head First braced with my Dad's pointer, Hay Loft and the many sleepovers at your home or in the tent at Hommonasset. You and your family ater in our thoughts and prayers.
