

N. James Yannello

May 28, 1921 - April 8, 2017

N. James Yannello passed away peacefully on April 8, 2017 with his family by his side in his New Britain home. A lifelong New Britain resident, he met his future wife and life partner, Ruby Penta, in the New Britain neighborhood they grew up in. Ruby and James were to celebrate their 75th wedding anniversary this September. He served in the US Army in the Pacific Theatre campaign during World War II. After the war, he graduated from the University of Connecticut with a business degree. He owned the International Insurance Agency of New Britain before retiring at the age of 75.

James' family was his central focus and he demonstrated his dedication to their care and support on a daily basis. Besides his wife Ruby, James leaves four children, James Yannello and his wife Gail; Jeffrey Yannello; David Yannello and his wife Susan; and Robert Yannello; and three grandchildren, James Yannello II; Todd Yannello; and Derek Yannello. James also leaves his dear sister Josephine "Jeanne" Field, as well as many treasured nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his brother Dr. Mario Yannello.

A Memorial Mass will be celebrated Wednesday (April 12, 2017) 9 AM at St. Jerome Church, 1010 Slater Road, New Britain. There are no calling hours. Interment will be private and at the convenience of the family. The Carlson Funeral Home, New Britain is assisting the family with arrangements. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the American Heart Association at www.h
