“ My condolences on the loss of your husband and father. I only vaguely knew him when we were kids. His name jumped out at me as I read my mother's obituary on the same page. I grew up knowing Nick Sarra, Sr., as one of my father, Martin Wentland's best friends & from Saturday trips to New Britain where my father delivered eggs from our Newington chicken farm in the 40s & 50s. I remember being teased by Nick, Sr., frequently & once going to a lake Moodus? on a fishing trip with the Sarra family.
