“ Christian and Sarah, there are not words to express my condolences except to say that Angel Noah and both of you are in my heart and prayers. There is a poem I carry in my wallet that gives me comfort when I need additional strength to deal with my loss...it is "Autumn Rain." I am sure you have seen it but I will send you a copy. I so wish I had been able to see Noah when you were all at Todd's. I take some comfort in that his Uncle Ray, Pepere B., Pepere T, Uncle Chris, and many Zajacs, Bourdons and other extended family members are watching over him now.

“ Noah I will miss you sooo very much. You smiled and giggled for us and made us smile and giggle back. Your mom and dad loved you sooo much and will continue to carry you in their hearts as will I. Thank you Noah for lighting up the room where ever you went, you were one special little guy.

Sarah and Christian, love you both very much and know that you both will remember Noah's gift to you - unconditional love and admiration for the great parents that you are.

“ Sarah and Christian,

No words will ease the pain that you are experiencing right now. The only thing I can say that might give you some comfort is to always remember the good times you had with Noah. All the smiles he brought to your face when you needed to smile after a long day. He still can put that smile on your face....alls you have to do is just think of him and you'll notice that smile come back.

The day will come when you'll get to see that smile of his again because I'm sure he'll be waiting for you with open arms at those pearly gates. \=

Wish I could give you a hug just like I use too when we worked at the Rock Cats/NB Red Sox games together. My heart is with you.

“ To the Dear Parents of Noah Bourdon,
My name is Colleen Bonadies, and you do not know me, but I felt so compelled to write to you to express my deep sorrow for the loss of your beautiful son. I am Maureen Suzio's sister, and when we talked, my heart just broke for you. I also lost my son, however it was when I was in my 6th month of pregnancy. Delivering him was the saddest day of my life, however I know this must pale in comparison to the pain you are now going through- having known and loved your son like I know you must have. I just so wanted you to know that my family and I will be praying for your family daily. It was a great comfort to me to know that Joseph was in a much better place and that no one but God can take or add to the number of days that our lives are ordained to have. Please know that someone else is out there that will be thinking about you and praying for you, and will not forget your beautiful son.
With greatest sympathy,
Colleen and Bryan Bonadies

“ So sorry for your loss. We lost our 7 1/2 year old a little over 3 years ago, so we share your pain. Your mom mom in law was a teacher at Hanover when we lost Rachel. There are no words to comfort you and I hope when you are ready you will join us at Compassionate Friends. You will truly find out who your friends are and will quickly realize you will need to talk to others who are living the horrible journey of grieving that we are on. If you need to talk to someone, please call - 630-9332 or my cell 605-3597. My heart aches for both of you, knowing this is nothing I would want anyone else to have to go through.
