“ To Bob and Jan and the entire Wallace family please accept my sympathy for the loss of your dear mother. How fortunate for all of you that she lived a very long and full life . I have fond memories of all of us when we lived next door to each other on Westfield St. in Middletown. I also remember your mom and my mom as den mothers for cub scouts. It has been a long time since those care free days but the memories will remain with us all. I pray for all of you during this difficult time.

“ Aunt Norma was a wonderful person. She welcomed everyone into her home and heart. She was an awesome sister to our dad, Carl Berry. Her children (our cousins) have all taken after her. With their kindness and willingness to open their homes and hearts. We love you all very much and our hearts and prayers are with you all. Hugs and kisses. Carl Berry, John and Debi Berry, Jan Berry DeRoner, Joyce Berry Cockburn, Dave and Pat Berry and all our children, and grandchildren.
