“ I've known Norm for 30 yrs. We worked together at PWA and hunted and fished. Since retirement we always touched base to talk and reminiscence about old times and the new season of hunting or fishing. We were so very sorry to hear of his passing. He will be remembered in our thoughts and prayers. May he rest in peace. Our condolences to all his loved ones. Dick and Joan Dickinson.

“ New to the club, Norm was one of the first members that I befriended. He was an all around nice guy that everybody liked. I loved swapping hunting/fishing stories with him and we did get out and hunt to together. I was able to share an experience with Norm as we put up his ladder stand in Andover. He spent hours out there enjoying nature and took his last deer in that spot. I felt good about that and feel that the memory of that deer, along with the beauty of the woods gave him happiness. I will truly miss him.

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Norm's passing. I knew Norm through the SRAA, and I often saw him fly fishing when I was out on the river. I just looked at my fishing log from June 9, 2008, and it begins, "Norm already fishing here when I arrive." We would stand and fish, sometimes talking about what flies we were using, sometimes just enjoying the sounds of the river. Although I didn't know Norm well, he was always a gentle, kind soul. I will miss him very much.

“ Norm was one of my best friends
We hunted and fished together for many years
I was one of the first to hunt with him and his beloved Lab, Kona
They made quite a team together.
We fished many times at the club pond.
He always outfished everyone and we were happy to see him catch so many trout.
I know everyone in the Glastonbury Sportsmens Club will miss Norm as will I Rest well Norm.
Get a couple of birds and catch some trout in the fields and streams of the after life.

“ My deepest condolences to the family and especially to Nancy. I only had contact with Norm on my visits back to Andover where I would always try and visit with Nancy. He was a very nice person and you could see how happy they were together. I lived across the street from Nancy and we have had many tests of strength in our life including the loss of my first husband, and both of us losing our children, Bryan and Karen at very early ages in their lives. Nancy is a wonderful caring person, and I know Norm was the same as you could see it when they were together. May Norm rest in peace.

“ Anne and Karen: I often talked to Norm when my dear friend Nancy wasn't home to take my phone calls. He was always conversational and relaxed, most likely from all that time spent walking in the fresh air of the fields and woods with the dog. He hunted several seasons on our tree farm and was delighted to receive a photo I took of him dragging a deer out of our forest. I thought it was a good photo of him....he thought it was a good photo of the deer! Modest and loyal ,he was a blessing in Nancy's life...they were a loving pair whose harmony went beyond their piano and clarinet duets. You have my deepest sympathy... he was a good man.

“ To my 1st cousin Norm. Always had a smile whenever I saw him. He was like a best friend to my Dad, Allan who was his dads baby brother. Thanks Norm for the memories, the friendship, the older cousin who was always a mentor in hunting and fishing. You were also well known to hundreds of Prat workers, many that Ive known who always had a complimentary word to pass on about you as a really friendly guy. May God Bless Nancy and all the rest of your family who really cared about you and be comforted knowing you are at rest with our Lord at your side and with your parents, my parents and your brother.
