“ Dear Jack:

I was terribly sorry to read in the Rivereast this past weekend that your beautiful Oriana had passed away. She was such a warm and kind person with a wonderful zest for life. I knew that as soon as I met her. I also knew that she had found her soul mate in you.

I will never forget how kind you both were to me, even though I was an inexperienced realtor, in the purchase of your new home in East Hampton. Little did you know how excited I was about having such wonderful people come and settle in my own town.

I have many nice memories of Oriana that I will keep with me forever.

Take care of yourself.

“ Jack,
Our hearts go out to you.

Grief never ends. It will change, it's a passage however, it's not a place to stay.

We pray that your loss give way in time, if we are to value the life that was, we must travel on.

My friend grief if not a sign of weakness or lack of faith, it is the price we pay for Loving.

So, I ask God to comfort you to make his face shine upon you and to be graciose unto you, to turn his face towards you, and give you peace.

Whatever reminds your of what is good, true, right, lovely, admirable, excellent, praiseworthy, and pure, think of these things, and the peace of the Lord and Viola will be with you.

“ I want to express my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. You can be assured that comfort and hope are found in the pages of the Bible. Revelations 21:4 speaks of a time when sorrow will be no more. This is a wonderful hope during our times of grief and pain. Please take care of yourselves.

Sincerely Mrs. Watkins
