“Oscar was the type of person that the moment I met him, I felt I had always known him. His little dog Sheba would run out to bark at my dog, and that is how we became friends. I will always remember his kindness, and great smile. I will miss, but always remember my friend.

My dad used to get a kick out of watching Sheba chase people in the front yard. She was all bark no bite...lol!! Thanks for sharing your memory Frank and Irene. Thank you also for your donation to the A.H.A.

“My Dad Oscar aka Hot (better known to those closest to him), is an amazing man and even better Dad. Where do I begin... We shared so many memories it's hard to narrow it down to one or two! His calm, kind ways were surreal, he never cursed, never yelled(except the time I talked back to my mom). I never talked back to her after that!! Lol!!! Maybe he got his peace and calm from feeding the birds, squirrels and chipmunks. He even trained those wild animals to come up to him, climb or fly onto his knee to get food. I kept local stores in business from buying peanuts in shell and bird seed. I loved so much about him, how good he was to others, how he helped people do things, get things or learn things they needed. He was simply an example to others on how to treat others. I'll always remember the things he did and the wonderful man/dad he was!! I love you dad and know you'll be with me forever. ❤️🙏

I unfortunately didn't get to know Grandad well, although well enough to feel that he was a kind, family man. All the things my family close to him have said in his memory affirms that. He sure left that legacy to you all. I am truly sorry that I am unable to make it to his memorial, but I send my love to Grandad, all my Aunts, uncles, and cousins. My thoughts are with you all!

Our thoughts and prayers are with Mr. Ashford's family. I didn't personally know Mr. Ashford but I have been blessed to know his Granddaughter Michele Gonzalez. She has shared wonderful memories about him over the years and I know she must have gotten some of her amazing traits from him. May he rest in peace. Michelle Judkins

*I met Oscar at Avon Health Center when both of us were there. We spent a lot of time outside talking, and watching the chipmunks running around the garden. I admired the way that he loved to interact with people and specially the way that he loved the Lord. I Will have wonderful memories about him, and I know that he is in a better place with the Lord that he loved so much. May he rest in peace.
