“ You all have our sincerest sympathies. Pamla was a friend to my mother, Eunice, before she was married. I grew up with Palma, as she lived near by us on Arch Street. Along wiht my godmother, Millie, and Mary, I fondly remember I spent many days at her next house where I got to play fetch with Queenie. I remember taking trips to Old Saybrook, and when I was older, to HAMmoneset with Walter and My PArnts.

The story I remember most was when Eunice and Palma went to the movies when they worked in a sewing factory. At the most crucial tear jerking part of the movie, Palma started laughing. My mother ,looked at her as if she was crazy. It was evident that Palma had been watching the movie with her dun glasses on!

I will always rememebr Palma for her kindness and warmth toqwards me.

I enjoyed attending her 80th birhday party. Watching Palma dance with <illie and MAry was a touching moment.

Again, our deepest sympathies.
