“ Patty was a happy, positive, smiling and wonderful person. We grew up together as members of a small parish church where all the children knew each other and had much in common. Our parents were 1st and 2nd generation Americans who loved the USA and taught us to do the same. I knew Patty's parents, wonderful people, and her Grandmother who owned and operated Blondie's corner candy store on Tremont and North St. Patty, with her parents, went through a severe health crisis when she was young. They fought the crisis together, never giving up hope, and came out winning. Patty was a survivor who led a wonderful and full life. May she rest in peace and our sincere sympathy to her family.

“ My friendship with Pat began over 59 years ago and I've had the privilege of her friendship over all these years. In our youth, we enjoyed many good times together. Pat was always ready for a new adventure. I'll never forget our good times in New York, all the German festivals, many parties, picnics and most recently our trip to Florida. Pat will be in our hearts forever and greatly missed.
