“ Pat & Norman Larson were already living on Hickory Hill Road in Kensington, when my parents, Leonard & Dorothy Ekwurtzel, moved in next door in 1960. They were good neighbors there together until #46 was sold in 1993. I especially appreciated their attentiveness to my dad in the three years he lived there alone after my mom's passing. I particularly remember Pat's beautiful backyard flower garden & her meticulous house keeping...everything so neat & tidy, as was she. I am sorry she is gone, as are the other former neighbors. My deepest sympathies to you, Gary & Vickie & your families. Wishing you comfort & peace...Joanne Coghill
