“ My condolences to the Medvec family. Hope you'll let members of CT Gilbert & Sullivan Society know of the musical tribute plans. Laurie was such a great addition to several of our shows as well as The G&S Trio, and I'll never forget the beautiful dress Joyce made for Laurie for Pinafore. Paul was so "young" compared to my musical sister who left us in August at age 97. Warm wishes. Bob Cumming

“ Dear Joyce and Laurie,
So sorry to read of Paul's passing. I have such fond memories of your family, beginning on the 'circle' and the preparations for your wedding, with your mother making the wedding dress. Also, my mother thought so much of you and watching Laurie as a little girl growing up.
Both my mother and husband are now gone and I now reflect on a time long ago but continue to hold on to those memories of you and your lovely family.
My heartfelt sympathy to you all,
Carol McCullough Dreher
