“ from the day we moved on Cleveland Street Paul and his brother Keith became friends with my brother Art. I remember these little boys becoming the best of friends and watching them grow was truly a treasure. Paul was such a great young man that will be missed everyday. He was perfectly imperfect. I can't believe you are gone. My deepest sympathies and condolences go out to Pauls Family. We LOVE U!

“ This has honestly broken my heart. Paul had a tough exterior, but anyone who knew him knew he was really a softy underneath.

The world is much less interesting without him. My thoughts are with his loved ones during this difficult time.
