

Philip Cannova

October 9, 1918 - February 28, 2006

Philip Cannova, 87, of New Britain, husband of Nancy Mignosa Cannova, died Tuesday February 28, 2006 at New Britain General Hospital. Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., Philip has been a New Britain resident since 1952. He was employed at the Emhart Corporation for 30 years until his retirement in 1981. He was also a Union Steward there. Philip was a member of St. Joseph's Church in New Britain and was an avid New York Yankees and UConn Basketball fan. He was active at the New Britain Senior Center and enjoyed Ballroom Dancing and Walking. One of his fondest memories as a young man was attending 3 major league baseball games in one day at Yankee Stadium, The Polo Grounds, and Ebbetts Field.

Besides his wife Nancy, he is survived by a daughter, Joan King and her husband Glenn of Rocky Hill; two grandchildren, Andrew and Sarah King both of Rocky Hill; two cousins, Jeanette Carrozella of Avon and Rosalie Collier of Venice, FL; a niece, Gina Cannova of Queens, NY; and two nephews, Anthony Tricarico of New Britain and Daniel Tricarico of Manchester. He was predeceased by a brother, Salvatore Cannova.

Calling hours will be held Saturday morning 9 to 10 AM at Carlson Funeral Home, 45 Franklin Square, New Britain, followed by a Mass of Christian Burial 10:30 AM at St. Joseph's Church, New Britain. Entombment will take place in the Mausoleum of St. Mary's Cemetery.
