

Phillipp J. Quedens

March 10, 1930 - June 11, 2017

Phillipp J. Quedens, 87 of Berlin, Connecticut, passed away after a brief illness on June 11, 2017 at the Southington Care Rehabilitation Center. He was predeceased by his beloved wife of 57 years, Janet (Carlson) Quedens. Born in New York City, New York in March 30, 1930, he was the son of the late Phillip and Paula (Funck) Quedens Sr.

Phillipp graduated from Dwight School Class of 1948, receiving his BS from New York University in 1951 and his MS from RPI in 1958. He retired from American Home Products as the Head Engineer of the Mechanical Engineering Department. He maintained his own private consulting business for over 45 years and was a contributor to 27 U.S. and International design patents for a variety of inventions from the Stanley Circular Trim Saw to various medical devices. His proudest accomplishment was designing and building his home in Berlin. When he wasn't working he loved to travel especially going on cruises with his wife Janet and family members. He enjoyed boating and watching the history channel. He was an avid reader of books on World War II. He was a talented artist and especially liked painting and drawing.

Phillipp is survived by two daughters, Christine Quedens of Virginia Beach, VA and Cara Case and her husband Mark of Southington, his son Phillip III and his wife Nancy of Berlin, CT. He will be missed by his grandchildren Sarah and Christa Case of Southington and Brett Hellman of Virginia Beach.

At his request, the funeral and burial will be private. There are no calling hours. His family wishes to thank the staff of Southington Care Center for their support and compassion.

Carlson Funeral Home, New Britain is assisting with arrangements. Please share a memory or note of sympathy at www.carlsonfuneralhome.com.
