“ I feel I knew you very well through the eyes of your daughter and my best friend Beth... the childhood memories she's shared with me - camping, vacations, family time, and how you lovingly & responsibly took care of your family -only makes me wish that I, too, lived next door to you and shared in those times. For me, I am grateful to you for Beth -you raised a truly wonderful, giving, kind-hearted person - all characteristics, I am confident, that came from you and Peggy. Beth struggles now with knowing she won't 'see' you anymore; but I know she will come to find comfort in knowing you and her mom are shining down upon her and her family. May you rest in peace Mr. Gagliardone.
Love, Keri-Ann

“ Camping, The ocean, Old Orchard Beach, Clam Puffs, Binyette, Laughter, Friends, Love. All my memories of fun filled vacations include you Ray.
We learn so much from our parents and the people they bring into our lives. Our families shared so many great times together. You helped me understand what life long friends mean. My memories of you are with me forever.
