

Richard F. Gross

April 16, 1941 - March 25, 2005

Richard F. Gross, 63, passed away on Friday at New Britain General Hospital after a long courageous battle with cancer. Richard was born in Biddeford, Maine. He was the son of Edward Earl Gross and Anita Gross Bonneau. His childhood was spent in Maine where he had fond memories. He moved to New Britain in 1955. He graduated from E.C. Goodwin Technical School class of 1959. Richard was employed with the Southern New England Telephone Company for 28 years retiring in 1995. He served his country in the U.S. Army in Germany. He was an avid Nascar Racing fan, and loved riding his Harley. He is survived by his wife, Judith Gross; Julianne Pascoe, a very dear and close friend; his sister Denise Colwick, two step-sisters Joanne Collison and Connie Boudreau; several brothers and sisters-in-law; several nieces and nephews. Richard was predeceased by his father, Earl Gross; his step father Alfred Bonneau, his mother Anita Gross Bonneau; his sisters Barbara Roberts and Carol Ann Gross.

Calling hours will be held Monday evening 6 to 8 PM at Carlson Funeral Home, 45 Franklin Square, New Britain. The funeral service and burial will be private. Please share a memory of Richard with his family on our online guestbook by clicking on "GUESTBOOK" at the bottom of this page.

“ Please accept my condolences on Dicks passing. I worked with him many years ago in the line gang at s.n.e.t. He was an excellent co-worker. I remember when he built his hot rod in New Britain. He was so proud of the finished product. My memories of Dick are all positive. I'm sure that he has found peace. God bless.....
