“ Sorry for your loss. I remember when Bob would enter and bring his students artwork to the Berlin Fair Youth building every year until his retirement. He used to bring his students to the fair on Fridays so they could see the fair and their artwork on display. He also was a great help to me and my wife hanging artwork for hours in the Youth building. He always stopped by the Youth building after his retirement to say hello and see how everything was going. He will be missed! RIP Bob.

SO sorry for your loss, Tina. Words on this page don't do justice to the loss ... glad that we got to talk, though.

Thank you for posting this memory Robert. I was just thinking about you and all the years my dad would bring his students art to the fair
