To not only call dad but my best friend. you have always guided me and gave me the values and morals that I have today that I have instilled in my own children. They were so lucky to have had such an amazing and supportive. Grandpa who always showed up. You gave us all memories of a lifetime. I was lucky to have you and I cherish every moment I spend with you. You are the most selfless man who truly loved us all more than life. Family with everything to you! We will be buddies forever.
