“ Growing up as family with you all leaves me with many memories of Dad Schafer, although none that are recent. I remember walking to Baskin Robbins when we were very young with both of our families. I remember seeing him working on/fixing stuff in your basement. I remember, when we were older, visiting him in New Hartford. Watching him fly fish. Visiting his beach.... he was always kind and caring to me. And I know he loved you and Lisa. You were both amazing daughters to him..... I can hear his voice. He made me laugh. Not by being animated or with grand storytelling, but with simple statements. Sending much love, Tracey, Lisa & family, Jim, and all who are mourning his loss. Rest in peace, Dad S.

“ Roger has been missed ever since he had to leave 8 Bridge Street. He was our guardian. I could always count on him for all the news around the building. He would help out whenever I needed it. I wish you peace Roger. God Bless.
