“ Rest in peace Uncle Ronnie. Although I haven't seen you in quite some time I will always have very fond and fun memories of you. May you eat all the Fall River chow mein your heart desires in Heaven. Have a good old fashioned clam bake with everyone when you get to Heaven. You will be missed.

“ I have had the pleasure of knowing Ronnie for the last 15 years at Spartans. We have had many conversations about Matt, Michelle, Ava and Jack. Always asking me if there was anything in the Avon book for Ava and Jack. How family was important to him. There wasn't anything that the two of us couldn't talk about. Always a gentleman and concern for me leaving at night alone, waiting for me to lock up. I will miss him a lot. My prayers are with him and the family. Take care and you have my deepest condolences. A true Spartan that will be missed. Bill has always enjoyed talking sports with Ron. Many an evening talking baseball, basketball and football together. He will miss those times spent with him. Always very knowledgeable about his sports. Now he is in heaven with the sports angels. Rest in peace.
