“ Dear Darlene, Gary and Marcia:

You should be aware that your Mother, Ruth, had a vital part in my recovery from the loss of my wife, your Aunt Lillian. Shortly after Lillian's death I experienced severe depression and talked about it to your Mother by phone. These phone conversations became a weekly event during which your Mother listened patiently and counseled me wisely. The healing process took many months and your Mother was instrumental in it. Despite her own loss, she provided constant encouragement for which I am thankful. I am sure that many others have benefitted from your Mother's input but none as much as I have. I will sorely miss her and our weekly phone calls.

Gratefully, your Uncle Jack
