

Ruth Phillips Goodemote

January 16, 1918 - February 15, 2002

Ruth Phillips Goodemote, 84, of Overlook Ave. Forestville died Friday February 15 at Bristol Hospital. She was the widow of Roger M. Goodemote, who died in 1974. Born in Gloversville, N.Y., she was a former New Britain resident before moving to Forestville in 1992. Mrs. Goodemote was a member of the Church of the Bible in Plainville where she formerly served as an organist. She was employed at the State of CT Department of Motor Vehicles in Wethersfield for 15 years until her retirement in 1983. She was also a former AVON representative.

Mrs. Goodemote is survived by 6 sons, James Goodemote and his wife Doris of Victor, N.Y.; Thomas Goodemote and his wife Charlene of Glide, Oregon; Phillip Goodemote of New Britain; Rev. David Goodemote and his wife Carolyn of Fowlerville, Mich.; Jonathan Goodemote of Forestville; and Mark Goodemote and his wife JoAnn of Colchester; 3 daughters, Lois Albert and her husband Gerald of Bristol; Rebecca Canfield and her husband Thomas of Perry, Mich.; and Deborah Tanguay and her husband Richard of Southington. Mrs. Goodemote also leaves 22 grandchildren, 11 great grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held Monday Feb. 18, 2002 12 noon at the Church of the Bible in Plainville. Calling hours are Sunday TODAY at Carlson Funeral Home, 45 Franklin Square, New Britain, from 4-6 PM. Donations may be made to the Missionary Fund c/o Church of the Bible, 160 West Main St., Plainville, CT 06010. Online guestbook @ www.carlsonfuneralhome.com.

Tribute Wall

RW

“ During her family's visits to my folks farm I remember her as a great lady. Did have the pleasure of meeting her again at my mother's funeral last month in Fitchburg. Blessings to you all. Ron

Ron Wiita - September 20, 2016 at 12:00 AM