We grew up together in New Britain, remembering the good old days. I'll miss your smile and wit. I'll never forget you, Shirley!

“ One of my fondest memories of “Shirley Girl” was the second hand account from Jim about how badly a job I did washing the dishes in the sink. I immediately set myself to doing better. That’s probably not entirely true, but it never deterred me from my appointed rounds trying to pry Jim from the house on Casiello Drive while doing my to avoid the inevitable, “Mark, before you can both go galavanting, you’ll have to (fill in the blank). Shirley was truly an amazing woman, full of grace and an uncanny way of getting you to fall in love with her. I did. Love you Mrs. Bryant and can’t wait to see you again.

“ I will miss her wit and Sparkel. Loved her" revenge" story. She always laughed when recounting her planned revenge "on the kids". She said they would be emptying the basement for months removing all her collectibles. I only knew her about 10 years but I found her to be deeply devoted to her loving family.. She will be missed.

I had a lot of fun as a child in my Aunt Shirley's house watching Batman with my cousin Jimmy back then. Great Christmas parties and good times. RIP and my deepest condolences to all of her family and friends.
