“ Condolences go out from the nauss family . She had a big heart first day I met her she said Kelly you are the man that feeds everybody in this town every Friday you are an icon in this town .. and she cried this hit me so hard seeing her cry it shows what a big heart she had you have to have a big heart to work for a church all them years it rubs off on all of us this is why I fed my town as she did also all them years every one tells me how she took her job to hearts 💕💕💕 .. God works and put us all were we need to be.r.i.p wished I talk to her more in the past... As god tells me be safe all God bless you all
