“ Rest in peace Gramma, you are no longer suffering or in pain. I havent been able to see you with Shelly in over a year and that makes this so much harder. You will be greatly missed by all your loved ones, family and friends. To the entire family, I love you all so much and you are all in my thoughts in prayers. 💕 Watch down on us all from heaven and guide us all the right way.

“ Ohh grandma, I am such at a loss for words m, what I feel I cannot fathom. My love for you runs deep and always will. You were the glue to our family and the heart of it. I'm sorry I hid in the bath tub and made you scared for two hour when you couldn't find me!!! You were so mad!!! But we still laughed about it. I will miss our weekly manicure sessions in your room, where we talked and talked. I am so glad you got to meet your last great grandchildren, and great great grandchild. Noah was so lucky to have known you and will remember you forever...as far as the fig newtons go!!! I hated them but I ate them when you didn't by the strawberry wafers!!! I hope grandpa is there with you. Please continue to watch over us memere. God has something so huge in store for you. Until we meet again in paradise... rock those heavens gramma 💕

“ I will never forget any memories I have with you..from feeding squirrels in your back porch and always eating fig newton's when i was young. Going to visit to watch mass on the television as I got older and still ate them newton's. I will never forget the way you looked at james the very first time calling him your little jimmy he will grow up knowing how great his great great grandmother was. Im missing you soo much forever i cherish you and love you. ❤️
