“ Terry was the most giving and generous person I knew. She meant a lot to everyone at First Lutheran. She gave my sons, Justin and Matthew gifts when they were born and also on their birthdays. When I worked in the church office, she would come in at least 2 times a week just to say "hi" and to have me read her tee-shirts with funny sayings on them. She didn't have much but what she had went to the church in various forms such as daycamp, so a child would be able to attend.
She will be greatly missed and I will miss her!!

“ Terry was a warm, kind, loving person.
As far as I knew never saw the "bad" in anyone.
I would smile as I walked into church on Sunday because I knew My friend Terry was taking care of things.

I could count on her. She taught me so very much about life, love and being a Christain. She did and never asked for anything in return,

I will miss her. She was my friend
