“ Tony was a member of The Positive Choice Band through the early to mid 70's. 🎺
He was a pleasure to work with and to be around.
His outgoing personality and irreverent sense of humor will never be forgotten.

“ For all the years he worked as a security guard at the building at Long Wharf, Tony was always a friendly and cheerful presence. Of course, I was so glad when Tony came to work for APT instead of elsewhere.

For a big man, Tony had the most gentle demeanor. His treatment allowed everyone to both feel at ease and be on their better behavior. Perhaps it made his job easier too - with hundreds of people coming and going daily. But I am sure it was harder than it looked.

I will miss you, my friend! I am so sad - after months of not seeing you, we won't have another chance to chat and laugh again
