

Vera Carlbert Casey

July 25, 1918 - February 17, 2011

Vera Hilma Carlbert Casey, 92, of Kensington, rose to glory Thursday February 17th. Born in West Springfield, she grew up in Hartford graduating from Weaver High School. She and her family moved to Southington soon thereafter. Vera attended the Salvation Army Theological School and she served as an officer there for several years. She remained in Southington until she married the love of her life Bill Casey and moved to Kensington where they built their own home and raised their loving family. Vera's love of flowers and gardening was always her passion. Her faith was her life. Vera was very active in local churches including Emmanuel Gospel church of New Britain and later at Calvary Christian Center of New Britain.

Bill predeceased her. She is also predeceased by her son Bob Casey.

Surviving her are two sons Bill Casey and his wife Donna Plank of Granby; and Bruce Casey of Broad Brook, and her daughter Bonnie Shoplick and her husband Jeff of Kensington; a brother, Carl Carlbert and his wife Norma of Southington; a sister, Elsa Berry and her husband Richard of Prospect, PA; seven grandchildren, William D. Casey and his wife Kendall; Kim Mengden and her husband Mike; Crystal Casey; Robert Casey and his fiancée Jess Schillinger; Jacob Shoplick; Kaitlyn Shoplick and Taylor Berloni; a great granddaughter, Annabelle Mengden; many nieces and nephews.

“ Bill and Donna, I am sooo sorry to hear of the passing of your Mom. I thought she was a very pleasant woman. I liked seeing her at your home when I came to clean. She will be missed. You have my thoughts and prayers always. Love, Carol

“ Vera treated me like a son and always told me to stay with God and to stay straight. When visiting we'd often sit outside and enjoy the beautiful flowers she grew. At times she'd bring some of them to my dad's house and this made him so happy that he planned to go to church when he got better. I'll always love and miss her.

“ Mom i can't believe your gone and you will always be know as our baby grandma. You'll always be in our hearts. I know that jeff considered you more than a mother-in-law he considered that he was your own son. I know that you made me a better mother to my children with your help and jeffs mom. Tell grandpa and uncle bubba we'll be riding together soon. We know that we have another angel watching over us
