

Verna (Zabrensky) DelCegno

March 15, 1956 - December 31, 2024

Verna (Zabrensky) DelCegno, age 68, of Kensington, passed away peacefully at home from cancer on Tuesday, December 31, 2024. Verna is survived by her husband Carl DelCegno, son Joseph, and daughter Lisa. She is also survived by her sister Judith (Zabrensky) Dahlgren-Dechand, nephews Robert Dahlgren, Kevin, Kyle and Kristopher Zabrensky, and brother-in-law John DelCegno. She was predeceased by her parents Leon and Verna Zabrensky, brothers Leon and Michael Zabrensky, and her niece Janet Dahlgren.

Verna worked at Heublein in Hartford, Bristol Public Library, and Manross Memorial Library in Bristol.

Verna was grateful for the support of her family and long-time friends Joan, Diane and Jeanne. She had a rich life full of love, laughter and adventure. Verna was a wonderful wife, mother, sister, aunt and friend, who made a positive impact on those around her. Her love and wisdom will continue to guide those who were close to her, and her memory will live forever.

"And in the end, the love you take is equal to the love you make." Paul McCartney

“ Dear Carl, Joe and Lisa. Heartfelt sympathy for the loss of Verna, your lovely wife and mother. I only met Verna a few times, but felt her warmth and kindness. Although I missed calling hours, my thoughts and prayers are with you. God bless you all and watch over you through this painful time.
Sincerely, Theresa

“ I am so sorry to hear of Verna's passing. She and I worked together at Manross Library in Bristol several years ago. Verna greeted everyone with a smile and made every patron feel welcome. She was a pleasure to work with. I know the libraries in Bristol will miss her, as will I.
