“ My deepest condolences to the Family of Vida. When I received the news of her passing I was in shock. So many memories of Vida while working with her at Head Start New Britain. Our Families intertwined and I loved you all. She taught me so much of her Culture which included Spanish Speaking and the great cuisine. God has chosen a Beautiful Angel and her Labor here on Earth is complete. Family cherish the good memories of her Love for you all. She loved her husband and Children and rest of her Family. God Bless you all. Vida will truly be missed. Vivian Williams-Beal, Raleigh, NC
