“ Wow. What a happy lady! I always enjoyed seeing Mrs. Baba as she typically had a smile even if things were not quite right. She tried her hardest to take good care of herself and she surely loved her family, as she talked more about them than herself. I will miss that mischievous smile. My sympathies on your loss.

Sincerely,

Dr. Bill Petit

“ Through out the years, when ever I was in the area, i'd call up Aunt Vi,,, and ask if I could come over... and she'd say yes of course you can..She would always have a pot of tea ready for us and we sat at the table and talked. I'll never forget those moments we had together. That memory will forever be etched in my mind as long as I have one...and can remember... peace to Aunt Vi,,my favorite aunt... until we meet again... bye for now.. love you . Phil
