“ My sincere condolences for your loss.

Please know that God understands how you feel and he deeply cares about you (1Peter 5:7), and fully understands what you're going through. Especially the pain and grief we experience when someone we love falls asleep in death. God's word encourages all to throw all of our anxiety on Him because he cares for you. You can trust him with your innermost feelings, Pray to Almighty God for comfort and he will sustain you.

My deepest Sympathy.

“ I don't think I ever saw Ginny without that lovely smile. She was such a lady; not stuffy or pretentious but gentle and loving with an inner strength and a sense of what was correct. She encouraged me in my job here at St Jude Church as did Bert and I am a better person for having known them. Bert told me to wear my "bankers suit" when addressing parents as it lent an authority to me that I otherwise lacked and Ginny told me to be firm but apply it gently. To the family; May the Lord ease your loss. Trish Woodward
