“ Aunt Viv, boy where has the time gone? One thing no one can take away is our great memories. The huge gatherings at gramma and grampa Warner's house on S. Main St. and the sleepovers on Brook St. with you, Uncle Art, Randy and Gary. My brother Mark and I never ratted you guys out on the amount of pizza, soda and the late bed times we had. You were fortunate to inherit the great Warner genes, hopefully we all are. With all of us pretty much in isolation, you can rest in peace knowing that you have a great son and terrific grand-daughter too carry on, love your nephew Paul.
