“ Dear Waad, we will miss you greatly, but we know that you are no longer in pain and no longer suffering, you are free from the body that separated you from Heaven and from our Heavenly Father, now you are enveloped in his loving arms and feel the tremendous joy that God promised us all we would have someday. Jesus prepared that special place and there we shall all be happy together again my brother. Please know that as long as I and those that knew you live, we will remember the kind hearted, caring, humorous person you were. I will remember all those times that we sat for hours talking about the bible, I learned a lot from you and you really did cause me to ponder those things that had never crossed my mind. Thank you for those moments. I admired your great faith which grew stronger as your days with us grew less, you recognized the blessing that God gave you and Carolyn in giving you your children, Samantha and Adam. You sought God's will until the end, and bravely accepted the outcome with complete trust, I admired this very much and hope that when my time comes I will fare as well. Please know that we will make sure that Carolyn, Samantha and Adam are doing well always, I know you worried about this but we will all look after them. You left this life but left them your love and peace which they will need in order to go on without you. You left the rest of us with treasured memories, that we will not soon forget. Until we are all united in God's kingdom, love, joy and peace to you.....love Odalys and Family

“ *To my family,
Sending all my love in your time of sorrow. May these words bring you comfort.*

Psalm 30:5

For angry last only a moment, but his favor lasts a lifetime, weeping may stay for the night, but rejoicing comes in the morning.

Psalm 35:14

I went about mourning as though for my friend or brother I bowed my head in grief as though weeping for mother.

“ Waad will be sadly missed. He called on each boy to put out their very best and took special interest in each one's talents on the soccer field, tough love, quick wit and an endearing sense of passion for the sport. "you have soccer in your bloodlines" he would say to boys who were of decent from a country that was big on soccer---"it's in your blood!!" Prayers and strength and comfort to you Carolyn, Samantha and Adam, who will grow up to be a great man like his Dad.

“ To our good neighbor who we affectionately called Uncle Waad. Waad was a great neighbor and friend. He was strong in his faith. Waad was always working on home projects. When he first moved in I told him he had to do something about the ugly green garage door and trim. Since he was a painter, he took care of that first. Another project was a fenced in front yard that he designed. I shall miss hearing him say, "a little less noise over there." We were always checking to see what projects were going on in each other's yards. One day we came home and he had cleaned up and bagged all the wood shavings from our wood planer when we were working on our addition. We shall miss him. The neighborhood will not be the same. Funniest thing I remember is when he installed the new swimming pool. What a time he had with that, but he didn't give up. We're sad he wasn't our neighbor longer. He was a great guy and a straight shooter. Our condolences to his family. Until we meet again at the narrow gate, brother.
