“ It has been a pleasure to know Walter. He delighted everyone with the stories of his experiences as a young man with the farm and Roger's Orchard. I am sure there were a lot of parents saying to their son's "Why can't you be more like that nice Walter Anderson?" I will picture Walter sitting on the bench outside and will think of him when the sun is shining.
In sympathy,

“ We have fond memories of Walter, who joined the Austrian Donau Singers after the Wennerberg Chorus disbanded. He sometimes told of an early singing experience, when he with a group of Upsala College students serenaded Thomas Edison at his home. Once he recalled early mornings in New Britain when he, in his teens, worked hitching a horse to a milk wagon. Last year when the Donau Singers sang at Jerome Home, he was in the audience. Farewell, Walter.

“ dear Bob and other members of family:
my deepest sympathies to all of you. I have such sweet memories of Walter from the Jerome Home where I worked as Recreation Director. His sense of humor was so delightful. I loved to sit with him when he went outdoors to observe the sunshine, trees and that nice house across the street. I lived to hear his stories about delivering milk, meeting Thomas Edison and visiting Rogers Orchard! What a delightful man!
Bob, what a wonderful son you are in all the visiting you did with your dad and your aunt.
Again, my deepest sympathies to you all. Sincerely, Jackie Peterson

“ The amazing thing about prayers is they eliminate distance. Know that ours are with you. How comforting to know that your father is united with loved ones in heaven telling "100 wonderful years" worth of stories.

“ We are close friends of Allan and Brenda and attend the same church, Calvary Lutheran in Solana Beach. We remember meeting Wally when he was visiting Brenda and Allan .. what a delightful man !! He will be truly missed, but what a wonderful life ... all 100 years of it !! If only we could all be so fortunate. With Deepest Sympathy in the loss of beloved Wally Holly and Al Vanderpool

“ We moved next door to Walter in 1995 and right away we knew this was a truly amazing man. Walter charmed the kids with his many stories, especially the one where he met Thomas Edison! Our dog Shula loved Walter very much, she spent more time in his yard than ours. We love you Walter, when we think of you we will see you singing in a Heavenly choir. God Bless you and comfort your family, With our deepest sympathy, the Nolan family.

“ I remember Uncle Wally as a loving father to cousins Bob and Allan, a loving husband to my father's sister, Aunt Ebba, and a good Lutheran Christian. Even now I can see him in his choir robe singing every Sunday at the First Lutheran Church on Franklin Square in New Britain, CT. Last year he celebrated his 100th year of a good life. God bless and keep him.
