

Wilfred "Brud" Bulmahn

March 30, 1925 - September 26, 2019

W. H. "Brud" Bulmahn passed away Thursday, September 26, at the age of 94. Born in New Britain, he is a graduate of New Britain High School, Class of 1941. Brud was a proud member of the Battery D, 3rd Antiaircraft Training Battalion in World War II, seeing extensive action in Europe, including the famous D-Day invasion. He was also a 32nd degree Mason, a successful business owner, and a master mechanic and owned and operated Flying Dutchman Marine Service in Berlin. Brud is survived by his brother-in-law, David Snell. He was preceded in death by his loving wife Gloria after a half century of marriage together. He died peacefully at his home in Rocky Hill, Connecticut. There will be a private family celebration of his life. The Carlson Funeral Home, New Britain is assisting with arrangements. Donations may be made to The Shriners Children's Hospital, 516 Carew Street, Springfield, MA 01104.

Tribute Wall

“ He was a great friend for over 30 years. We went to st thomas 3 times with him and my mom. He was such a great friend. My our memories of the great times we have shared with this remarkable man heal our hearts. So sorry jeannie he just loved you and admired you so much. So sorry for your loss. I know how much you cared for him along with your family.

---

Sandy McCarthy - October 02, 2019 at 12:52 PM