

William R. Livingston IV

January 10, 1977 - March 22, 2021

William (Bill) Livingston IV, 44, of Newington, passed away Monday surrounded by his family after a courageous two year battle with Glioblastoma. Born in New London, Bill grew up in the Ledyard area and has lived in the New Britain/Newington area for over 20 years. A graduate of Ledyard High School, Class of 1995, he received his Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education and his Masters in Special Education from Central CT State University. Bill worked at and became a Teacher of Special Education at CREC – River St. Autism Program at the Birken Campus in Bloomfield and was there for more than 15 years. He had a patient, gentle way of connecting with even the most challenging students. He loved his students, his job and his Birken family fiercely. Bill also loved the Red Sox, NY Football Giants, the UConn Huskies, and golfing with his buddies. No love was greater though than that for his family and especially his children Addy and Alina. He truly enjoyed coaching both their softball and tee ball teams.

Besides his wife Sarah, he leaves his daughters, Adeline and Alina Livingston; his parents, William Robert Livingston III and his step mother Pam Livingston of Groton; his mother, Linda (Farrar) Pendleton of Ledyard; his twin brother Sean Livingston and his wife Nicole of Montville, his brother Erik Pendleton of Ledyard; two nephews, Jared and Bryce and a niece Kayla Livingston. He is also survived by many beloved aunts, uncles, cousins and friends whom supported him throughout his life and during his illness.

A celebration of Bill's life will be held April 11, 2021 from 2 to 5 PM at The

“ I am so sorry to learn of Bill's passing. I used to see him once a week when I provided services for a student we shared. I work for Perkins School for the Blind in Watertown, MA. Bill was a great teacher and kind friend. He worked tirelessly to provide access to all his students. I hope it is comforting to know that Bill made a difference to all the lives he touched.

“ The world has lost a great person. I was lucky enough to learn from Bill and work alongside him for many years. He trained me early in my career and I will be forever grateful for his guidance and support. He always had my back and saved me from more predicaments than I can count, always remaining calm--the most patient man I've ever met! He was always respectful and even put up with our ridiculous end of the day conversations with a laugh to himself, shaking his head. It was a joy watching him work with the kids and seeing the relationships he built with them and his passion for what he did.

Sending my love and prayers to Bill's family and friends. No matter how much time has passed, he made an impact on many people's lives and has left a lasting impression. He will truly be missed.

“ So sad to hear of this news. Billy was a good childhood friend. Billy was an integral part to the Cedar Ridge crew back in the mid to late 80s in North Stonington, CT. We will all miss you sorry we did not keep in touch. The Livingston Twins and the Traylor Twins would hang out often. May God bless you and your family. Jason Traylor

“ Bill was an amazing individual with so much integrity. He often referred to his male students as gentlemen. I admired his patience and ability to remain calm at all times. His classroom was across from my office and I was able to see his daily commitment to both his students & staff. Bill will be remembered always by his Birken family!!

“ It was always fun to make you laugh! Thank you for always being kind and understanding; even though our time together was short it was an honor to work with you. You gave everything to your students and co-workers, in times of chaos , you were our calm. It was always a delight to see your face light up when you talked about your girls, to them, I say- you have the best dad. He will always be with you in your hearts because he loved you so. Bill, I hope you have a snack closet wherever you are now. Miss you.

“ I will always remember the time "Mr. Bill" spent in the ELC subbing for the teacher who was having surgery. All the preschoolers loved him and his always calm demeanor. How excited they were to have a male teacher and Bill was a perfect fit taking it all in stride. Such a kind and gentle person who will be remembered fondly and greatly missed. My thoughts and prayers are with his family.

“ I am at a loss for words. Bill meant so much to so many people. To me, he was a fellow teacher, a supportive colleague and a loyal friend. Never missed a chance to throw a sarcastic comment my way or say quick joke under his breath. I’ve never met such a gentle soul, a kind spirit. My heart breaks for his family, and his daughters whom he adored. I hope they grow up knowing how wonderful their dad was and that he was a local hero to many 💖 Rest Easy Bill 💖 Until we meet again.

“ "Bill was a kind, gentle, and compassionate teacher that always put his students needs before his own" I remember an instance that a student was in crisis and Bill calmly with his gentle and neutral voice was able to bring the student back to work. I can remember looking over and seeing the student and Bill laughing together. Bill had that effect with all his students and staff that worked with him. Bill will be missed tremendously.
